Description

Inspired by nature and designed for modern island living, this 1-bedroom apartment is set within Anahita Beau Champ, a residential estate shaped by greenery, space, and a distinctive Mauritian architectural identity.

Offering a strong connection to the outdoors, the apartment offers a bright, functional, and easy-to-live-in layout. Its architecture combines clean volumes, stone accents, natural textures, and generous openings, allowing the home to feel naturally connected to its lush tropical surroundings.

The living and dining area has been planned to offer comfort and openness towards the exterior.

Ideal as a peaceful island residence or a practical investment within a thoughtfully planned estate, this apartment offers a refined lifestyle in one of the East Coast's most distinctive residential environments.
